

Dover, I.kla.,

Sept., 24, 1919.

Dearest Auntie:

will you not be offended if I should send you a cotton handkerchief.

Our Prof. is sick he could hardly teach this morning and he was unable to return this afternoon. I sure falsary for him. Have you any casts "I lu" down there? We have ~~several up here. How is~~ uncle Elwood.

Tell Glenn to write to me and to come see me sometime.

My other has been putting up peaches all day and is very tired to write.

My other is going to write to you now she can tell you the news

as ever
Delma

P.S.

ans. when you find time
