Miss Matthews Weds Mr. Starr In New York

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Mary Catherine Matthews, of Keysville, and Raymond Pierce Starr, of Atlanta and New York City.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Benjamin Saxon on September 13, in the study of the Church of Christ, Park Avenue, New York City.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Max Hall, Jr., of New York; Mrs. N. P. Starr, of Atlanta, mother of the bridegroom was present.

The bride wore a fall model of woods green crepe, with embroidery of gold and matching accessories. An orchid corsage completed her costume.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hall were hosts to the bridal party and a few close friends at their home in St. Jackson's Heights, New York City.

Mrs. Starr is a descendant of well-known Georgia and South Carolina families. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Matthews, of Keysville. Her mother was formerly Miss Mary Harris, of Sandersville. Her maternal grandparents are the late Colonel Richard Ivey Harris and Mrs. Robert Martin Harris Adams, of Sandersville. Her paternal grandparents are the late Watson Williamson Matthews and the late Ann Mary Hogg, of Williston, S. C. Her only brother is Richard Harris Matthews, of Keysville.

Mrs. Starr was graduated from Druid Hills High School and continued her education at Agnes Scott College, where she received her A. B. degree this past June.
