

TO THE PUBLIC!

On Wednesday, May 16th, 1894, I will begin the publication at Calhoun, Ga., of a weekly newspaper which is to be known as THE CALHOUN TIMES. Mr. J. O. Middleton will be its Editor and Business Manager, while I will be associated with him Editorially.

THE CALHOUN TIMES will advocate the principles of true Democracy. It will stand for party unity and fealty. The Chicago Democratic platform will be its political creed and to this line it will hew.

In its local columns it will be clean and dignified, and will keep the people of the county informed upon all happenings in which they would be likely to feel an interest. In a word, the paper shall be a true weekly record of current events pertaining to the social, moral, religious, political and agricultural interests of the county and of its industrial possibilities and growth. If it does this successfully it will be entitled to and no doubt will receive the good will and patronage of the people of the county.

THE TIMES office will be found on the North side of the Public Square in Calhoun, two doors East of the bank. Would be glad to have your name on our subscription books for the first issue. Mr. Middleton can be found at the office from this time forth.

Very Respectfully,

W. R. RANKIN, Jr.

Subscription rates $1.00 per annum, six months, 50 cents. reasonable clubbing rates will be made.
